

Katharina Geutebrück

CEO

Katharina Geutebrück graduated from the Technical University of Darmstadt with a degree in industrial engineering, majoring in marketing. In her diploma thesis at the textile service company MEWA, she focused on the topic of quality control and then headed a project for tour optimization in the company's subsidiary in North Italy. From 1994 - 1996 she worked as international product manager for technical fixtures for SLI AG in Saint Etienne, France.

She then joined her parents' company in 1997, initially as marketing manager and in 1999 as co-director alongside her father who completely handed over the business in the following few years. In 2012, Katharina's husband Christoph Hoffmann joined her as a co-director.

Katharina Geutebrück is a member of the International Professional Association of the Security Industry ASIS International. She is a member of the board of the ASW-West Alliance for Security in Industry and Commerce and is a member of the board of trustees of the Trappen Stiftung Bad Honnef and of the Fraunhofer Institute IAIS for Intelligent Analysis and Information Systems in Sankt Augustin.